- Engage in all aspects of design process, including programming, conceptual design, design development, construction documents and construction administration.
- Research and select architectural interior finishes that would best meet specific project requirements and budgets.
- Prepare sample boards and finish and furniture specifications.
- Work directly with clients to program needs and present design concepts.
- Manage the entire interiors portion of assigned projects and coordinate with team members to complete work.
- Manage multiple projects simultaneously and work independently.
- Complete tasks as assigned to maintain Interior Design Library, assist with sample boards, project archive and department document templates.

QUALIFICATIONS

The ideal candidate shall have the following qualifications:

- Completed a four- or two-year accredited interior design program with two–five years of experience.
- Revit and Adobe expertise.
- Ability to communicate design philosophy and technical data to project team and client.
- Strong communication and inter-personal skills with the ability to interact professionally and courteously.
- Effective organizational and time-management skills, comfortable with a fast-paced environment.
- Individual should be self-motivated and focused to meet client expectations and deadlines under limited supervision.
- Experience in selection and specification of furniture and furniture systems.

Preference will be given to candidates with the following qualifications: NCIDQ certification or actively pursuing, active participation in professional development groups

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH | UNLIMITED OPPORTUNITY

We are a 56-year-old planning, architecture, and interior design firm whose success is derived from the quality of our design and the loyalty and trust of our growing client base. If you are an organized and self-motivated individual with a desire to grow personally and professionally within a highly collaborative environment, we hope to hear from you. It has been an incredible several years at Bray with steady growth in work, employees, and markets. With our recent move into what we feel is the height of workplace design – our new home in Walker's Point – we have every reason to be excited about the future. Come join us.

CULTURE

We value most our dedicated staff who thrive within a culture of high work ethic, professional growth, commitment to each other and our clients, and supportive and transparent leadership. Our turnover is virtually non-existent as the high bar of expectation is supported with mutual respect, support, and camaraderie.
